The screenshot shows the Google Play Store listing for the Pitpat app. At the top left is the app's icon, a red square with a white stylized 'P'. To its right, the app name 'Pitpat' is displayed in black, with 'JOYFIT INC' in green below it. Below the name, it shows '1K+ Downloads' and a rating of '3+' with the text 'Rated for 3+' and a small 'i' icon. A large green button with the word 'Install' is centered below this information. Underneath the button is a promotional image showing a person on a treadmill in a virtual environment with various colorful scenes. The text 'Immersive Running' is overlaid on the bottom of this image. Below the image, the text 'About this app' is followed by a right-pointing arrow. Underneath that, a short description reads 'Run for fun and run for high rewards in Pit Pat.' At the bottom, there is a rounded rectangular button with the text 'Health & Fitness'.

Because the installation package of the PitPat App is large, please check the memory of your mobile phone before downloading. Otherwise, the download may fail due to insufficient memory.
